One of the sporting treats of the season is promised when the Bond Slippers and the Insurers "stack up" against the wheelmen's base ball team. They expect to pull off the match on the Goddard campus provided the neighbors will agree not to bring charges of breach of the peace.

The Spaulding base ball team defeated the alumni team at the trotting park yesterday afternoon by a score of 11 to 6 in eight innings of play. The school team was ahead from the start and did not give the graduate teams a chance to get into the game at any time. The batteries were, for Spaulding, Cutler, Soldini and Fowles; for the alumni, Fisher and Kendrick.

There's no use talking differently; they've got some really funny pictures at Massucco's theatre to-day. It is as good a combination of pictures as has been seen here for several months. "Well, Try Water," is the picture story of a minister who draws water from a well where a short time previous someone had poured some champagne. He thinks the water tastes pretty good—and a little later he feels hilariously happy.

All the stores in town occupied by saloons during last year's license regime have been filled up with some kind of a business. Two of the old saloons are occupied by moving picture shows; three by stores; and one by a pool room and barber shop on one side and a second-hand store on the other, while the City hotel barroom becomes the hotel office again. The Northern hotel is the only saloon which is not occupied, that entire building being vacant.

June should be the largest month in point of sales in the history of our store, if the preparations we have made for the same are realized. And why should it not be, with a new and complete stock now, embracing from $15,000 to $20,000 of new merchandise direct from New York and Boston? The values speak for themselves. Large invoices of underwear, hosiery, neckwear, negligee shirts, belts, shoes, hats, etc., all at unmatched prices. See advertisement in another column. A. A. Smith & Brother.

The annual memorial services of Hiram Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F., will be held at Odd Fellows' hall, Gordon block, on Sunday afternoon, June 14, at 3 o'clock. Rev. A. J. House of Street-peller, for many years prominent in Vermont Odd Fellowship, will address the meeting. All Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are invited to attend. Visiting brothers and sisters are especially requested to be present. The committee has made arrangements for a service of benefit to you all, and it is hoped that a large number will be present. Per order, committee.

The streets in the vicinity of the city hall were again patrolled by a policeman last night during the graduation exercises in the opera house, in order to keep the teams off the pavement as much as possible or to have them go slowly.

The closing of the city schools yesterday afternoon caused an exodus of teachers from Barre to-day. The complete list of teachers for next year has not been quite completed, but Sup't. Mathewson expects to be able to announce them before long.

Chauncey G. Harris, until recently with the Gilbertson orchestra, wishes to announce that having secured the services of Mrs. Perley Carr, pianist, also a number of other competent musicians, he is prepared to furnish orchestra for any occasion. Tel. 444-3 or 157-11.

Many Barre people will recognize this word picture drawn by the Waterbury Record: "D. R. Blisbee of Watfield was a visitor in town last Thursday. Dan is one of the prosperous farmers in the Mad river valley section. He is the kind that always has a good story and a smile for everyone. His smile often develops into a hearty laugh, a particular kind that Dan has developed. It does one good to meet this sort of a man."
